

Special Events Committee of EDC
April 1, 2018 minutes

Present at the meeting was Alan Harding, Steve Johnson, Christine Collins, Mari Leathers and Linda Murray. Ms. Murray asked if anyone was interested in being the secretary but no one volunteered.

The group discussed which events should be included in the Last Night in Wolfeboro 2018. The group agreed with the following:

Magician- Christine will get prices of different magician.

Scavenger Hunt- Mari will see if she could make changes to the scavenger hunt so it will be somewhat different than the hunt over the last two years.

Balloon Man- Alan will contract him and investigate the entertainers that Mo the balloon man suggested.

Animal Encounters- Linda is to contact and asked the price for one show.

Contra Dancing- continue the contra dancing and Linda will make the contact with the group.

Music- Mari will try to contact Laurie Jones to get the name of a music group.

Food- Alan will check with All Saints church to see if they will do a dinner. Christine will contact the Abenaki Ski Team about snacks.

The group discussed what venues could be used. The group agreed on the following:

Town Hall, Great Hall- will be the main venue.

All Saints Church- if they agree to do dinner.

The Congregational Church across the street- could be a venue for some of the events to give more time between events at the Town Hall.

Brewster Academy- someone needs to contact Maria Found.

The group discussed fundraising to cover cost of the performances. Some ideas were the Cate Memorial Fund, other local foundations, PSI, Edward Jones, Avery's Insurance, Lions Club, Rotary and Christine's donation jars at Parks & Rec. events. There is $611.63 in the Special Events account. It was agreed that Last Night in Wolfeboro 2018 would need between $1500 and $2000. Alan and Linda will contact the different groups.

Next meeting is Thursday, May 24 at 8:00am in the Town Hall Annex Conference Room.

Respectfully submitted,

Linda Murray
