

Dear Counselor-in-Training (C.I.T.) Applicant:

We are pleased you have expressed an interest in our C.I.T. program which is designed for teens, 13 years of age or older, who want to further develop their leadership and communication skills as well as gain experience in planning and instructing activities for young children.

Acceptance into this program is based on an application and interview process. Selected C.I.T.s will be assigned to a counselor and a group of children and be given a list of tasks to complete during the camp session. To be considered for an interview for the summer C.I.T. program, you must first complete the attached application and submit it to the Wolfeboro Parks and Recreation Department either electronically at parksdirector@wolfeboronh.us or mail to PO Box 629 Wolfeboro, NH 03894.

Selected applicants must commit to a set schedule with some flexibility and attend Camp training, along with Wink Tapply Workshop. It is important for all selected applicants to attend. CIT Handbooks and shirts will be distributed at this training.

Sincerely,

Christine Collins
Director, Parks and Recreation

Counselor-In-Training Rules of Conduct

Counselor-in-Training agrees to:

- Stay with assigned group at all times unless otherwise stated by the camp counselor. If on an assigned task, CIT shall not deviate from task for personal needs.
- Maintain personal care and wear appropriate camp attire.
CIT's arriving at camp without appropriate attire will be asked to leave the site.
- Never be alone with children.
- Respect others in what you say and do. CITs shall never use inappropriate language while in the vicinity of the site.
- Refrain from using a cell phone during camp hours. CITs may keep a cell phone on their person, in the vibrate or silent position. CITs found using a cell phone for any reason during camp hours will immediately forfeit their right to carry the cell phone. Confiscated cell phones will remain in the camp office until the end of the day, when a parent/guardian may pick up the phone. CITs needing to make an emergency phone call during the day will have access to a site phone under counselor/coordinator supervision.
- Greet parents and children at the beginning of the day and acknowledge them at departure.
- Be involved and engaged with campers throughout the entire camp day.
- Get to know campers' names on the first day
- Never use physical punishment, restrain or force a child.
- Keep camper incidents or issues confidential, only sharing information with supervisors and never with other campers.
- Take care of personal belongings & keep belongings out of campers' reach.
- Use equipment and supplies in a safe and appropriate manner.
- Teasing and bullying are not tolerated and are grounds for enrollment termination for campers and counselors in training. Observing bullying and not communicating it to a counselor is just as bad as doing the bullying yourself.
- Never say or do anything that campers might perceive as teasing and/or bullying.
- Create a safe and fun environment.
- Notify a counselor if a child is injured...this includes broken or lost teeth, bruises, and cuts. CITs are not permitted to administer any first aid.
- Report problems to supervisors concerning campers and staff and use appropriate chain of command.
- Chain of command for all camp issues, from staff issues to camper issues is as follows: Counselor, Camp Director, Assistant Parks and Recreation Director, Parks and Recreation Director, Town Manager.

I have read & understand the chain of command-_____

Grounds for Immediate Dismissal:

- Bringing a weapon to camp
- Intentionally harming yourself or causing injury to another child or staff member
- Vandalizing the property of the camp facility, staff or other children
- Stealing items from the camp facility, staff or other children
- Displaying inappropriate behaviors repeatedly
- Failing to comply with the Rules of Conduct
- Failing to display appropriate respect to authority figures on site

We have read and understand the rules of conduct and agree to uphold them to maintain a safe and enjoyable camp experience for everyone.
